

In the storage unit that held ① the effects of Dan McLaughlin was a folder simply entitled Claude SB

this is the contents of this folder put in what I think is the correct order the yellow pages seem to be earlier, more original drawings. the white pages seem to have been drawn later, perhaps to clean up the originals when appropriate I have scanned both copies together. I have also noted where the drawings here do not correspond with the final film

Several shots called for here do not exist in the final version, and scenes in the 3 final film are not clearly reflected here. This is being offered simply as a reflection of his art and the evolution of the film Claude
